

Christ with me,
Christ before me,

Christ behind me, Christ within me,
Christ beneath me, Christ above me,
Christ at my right, Christ at my left,
Christ in breadth, Christ in length,
Christ in height.

Christ in the heart of every man
who thinks of me,
Christ in the mouth of every man
who speaks to me,
Christ in the eye of every man
that sees me,
Christ in the ear of every man that hears me.

All: In the silence of the grove
May I share peace.

Hymn #382 Be Thou My Vision

Invocation (in unison)

Clear our hearts, O God, That we may see thee.

Clear our hearts, That we may truly see ourselves.

Clear our hearts, That we may truly see each other.

Clear our hearts,

That we may know the sacredness of this moment,

And in every moment,

Seek thee,

Serve thee,

As the living presence in every presence.

Clear our heart, O God, That we may see. Amen

The First Disciples

5 One day as Jesus was preaching on the shore of the Sea of Galilee, great crowds pressed in on him to listen to the word of God. 2 He noticed two empty boats at the water's edge, for the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. 3 Stepping into one of the boats, Jesus asked Simon, its owner, to push it out into the water. So he sat in the boat and taught the crowds from there.

4 When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Now go out where it is deeper, and let down your nets to catch some fish."

5 "Master," Simon replied, "we worked hard all last night and didn't catch a thing. But if you say so, I'll let the nets down again." 6 And this time their nets were so full of fish they began to tear! 7 A shout for help brought their partners in the other boat, and soon both boats were filled with fish and on the verge of sinking.

8 When Simon Peter realized what had happened, he fell to his knees before Jesus and said, "Oh, Lord, please leave me—I'm such a sinful man." 9 For he was awestruck by the number of fish they had caught, as were the others with him. 10 His partners, James and John, the sons of Zebedee, were also amazed. Jesus replied to Simon, "Don't be afraid! From now on you'll be fishing for people!"

11 And as soon as they landed, they left everything and followed Jesus.
